DETAILED ACTION

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

1. The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(b) the invention was patented or described in a printed publication in this or a foreign country or in public use or on sale in this country, more than one year prior to the date of application for patent in the United States.

2. Claims 1, 3-5, 7-15, and 20 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as being anticipated by Arthur et al. (GB 2145918).

Arthur et al. disclose producing a nonwoven comprising separating fibers in separating device with rotating separation element 80 and feeding material to conveyor 88 (also embodiment with two devices to conveyor 152 with different designs) see figures 6-7 and 9. Regarding claim 10, Arthur et al. disclose adding granulate to the tow by unit 142; see figure 1.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 103

3. The following is a quotation of 35 U.S.C. 103(a) which forms the basis for all obviousness rejections set forth in this Office action:

(a) A patent may not be obtained though the invention is not identically disclosed or described as set forth in section 102 of this title, if the differences between the subject matter sought to be patented and the prior art are such that the subject matter as a whole would have been obvious at the time the invention was made to a person having ordinary skill in the art to which said subject matter pertains. Patentability shall not be negated by the manner in which the invention was made.

4. Claims 2, 6, 16, and 18-19 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over Arthur et al. (GB 2145918).

Art Unit: 3721

Arthur et al. do not directly disclose the rotational axis of the separating device being parallel to the conveying direction, however the examiner takes OFFICIAL NOTICE that it would have been obvious to one of ordinary skill in the art at the time the invention was made to realign the conveyor 88 or use another conveyor in a parallel direction, since it has been held that rearranging parts of an invention involves only routine skill in the art. Arthur also contemplates the use of other conveyors in various alternates; see page 1, lines 60-65.

Conclusion

5. The prior art made of record and not relied upon is considered pertinent to applicant's disclosure.

6. Any inquiry concerning this communication or earlier communications from the examiner should be directed to Christopher R Harmon whose telephone number is (571) 272-4461. The examiner can normally be reached on Monday-Friday from 9-6.
